MY FAIR LADY AIDS BALLET STUDENTS

Dr. John Bennett, president of Kelowna Musical Productions, presents a $300 cheque to Miss Gwenn Lloyd of the Canadian School of Ballet in Kelowna. The money will be used to award scholarships to ballet students to study at the school this year. The presentation was made at the annual meeting of KMP Monday night. It was part of the $4,000 profit made by My Fair Lady, KMP's spring production this year. The remainder will be used for theatre improvements.—(Courier Photo)

Junta Boss Gets Tough On OAS Dominican Bid

SANTO DOMINGO (CP) — today in an effort to extend the Organization of American States planned more negotiations with the Dominican junta block from rebel lines.

Dornan Denies Any "Assist" On Stonehill's Landing Status

VANCOUVER (CP) — Hal Dornan, a special assistant to Prime Minister Pearson, denies he ever was willing to assist in achieving landed-immigrant status for American millionaire Harry Stonehill.

He made the denial as the forger trial of Vancouver public relations man, Al Williamson, resumed before Mr. Justice F. C. Munroe and a 12-man jury in assize court here Monday.

Williamson, charged with sending Dornan a letter bearing the forged signature of Premier W. A. C. Bennett and with attempting to have him deal with it as if it were genuine, pleaded not guilty to both charges. The letter, now known as the "Dear Hal" letter, purported to support for the landed-immigrant status sought by Stonehill.

No Personal Conclusions Reached But Millionaire Made Impression

"Don't you agree that as of March 28, 1964, you agreed to assist in getting landed immigrant status for Stonehill?" the lawyer asked.

I beg your pardon," Dornan replied. "I agreed to make inquiries about an alleged injustice."

After McKenzie insisted that Dornan had been willing to assist, the witness snapped: "No, definitely not. I made no judgment on the material given me. I merely sent it to the minister (of immigration)."

He said he personally had reached no conclusions about Stonehill. But the millionaire himself made a case for anyone who wanted to listen—he talked about taking business shortcuts and about "buying" politicians as though this were normal.

Earlier, Dornan testified under Crown examination about a meeting July 2, 1964 in Ottawa with Williamson and Raymond Denis, then executive assistant to the then minister of immigration.

He said that during discussion of Stonehill's investment plans

—he had talked of a glass factory in B.C. and a bank in B.C. and the like—Denis had remarked it was too bad "he wouldn't invest in us, or in me."

Dornan said the sum of $20,000 was mentioned and the remark was followed by embarrassing silence.

Dornan said he broke the silence by saying: "I find it difficult to differentiate between Quebec politics and Quebec humor."

One of the resolutions called for a major research project into television, both its educational potential and possible dangers to Canadian youth.

Much of what our children are watching on TV is undermining the work of our schools, said C. E. Edwards, school

The junta president, Gen. Antonio Imbert Barrera, declared that his regime would never let the OAS take control of the battered former seat of government now held by about 350 junta troops.

"Under no circumstances will the OAS or any other foreign element be permitted to take over the national palace," Imbert told a reporter. "Only junta representatives and junta forces will be allowed in the palace and adjoining grounds."

Col. Francisco Caamaño Deno, chief of the rebel force, told a press conference he had agreed to extend the security zone boundaries to take in the three-story structure occupied briefly and sacked by insurgent troops when the civil war erupted in April.

Latin American soldiers in the inter-American force line around the palace, he said. But he demanded that only a token force of junta troops be allowed to remain inside.

Malaysia Invaded

KUALA LUMPUR (AP) — Indonesian raiders have landed by sea on the southeastern tip of Malaysia's mainland state of Johore, touching off renewed fighting in that swampy jungle region, the defence ministry announced today.

A ministry communique said one Indonesian was killed Monday and several were captured in continuing action.

It said "aircraft were sent in to strafe the area where the enemy was hiding" in an effort to flush the invaders out of the dense marshland.

No details were given about the air strike.

Gloom Felt On Cambodia

LONDON (CP) — Britain was reported to have informed Canada today the prospects of drawing the big powers into a conference on Cambodia's neutrality have become gloomy and remote.

Canadian High Commissioner Lionel Chevrier called on Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart for a 20-minute meeting to review progress on the Cambodia issue. Chevrier said later he could not comment beyond the fact that the meeting took place and that progress on the Cambodian situation was discussed.

However, a spokesman said the British foreign secretary concluded that the Soviet Union, which originally had supported the request for a Cambodian conference, now appears to be dragging its feet, blocking further progress.

Britain and the Soviet Union had been negotiating on the issue in their role as co-chairmen of the 1964 Indochina Truce Conference. Canada is a member of the International Control Commission established to supervise the truce.

Aid Extended For Growers

Provincial aid to Okanagan fruit farmers has been extended to include apple, pear, prune and grape growers. Agriculture Minister Richter announced Monday.

Further extension of provincial aid may be forthcoming after local growers present briefs to the agriculture department, the minister said following talks with officials of B.C. Fruit Growers Association, the grower-owned marketing agency.

The extended aid parallels that already granted to cherry, apricot and peach farmers whose orchards were hard hit by December frosts.

Growers whose trees were destroyed will be provided with replacement "seedlings $100 per acre, up to $1,000 per farmer," Mr. Richter said.

He added that growers can also seek government-backed bank loans of up to $5,000.

Severe frost wiped out fruit crops in many Okanagan orchards during the winter.

Counter-Attack Hits Viet Cong

SAIGON (CP) — South Vietnamese troops supported by U.S. Air Force jets today counter-attacked Communist Viet Cong units withdrawing after handing government forces one of their worst defeats of the five-year war.

As wave after wave of U.S. jets pounded the withdrawing guerrillas with bombs and napalm (jettied gasoline), south Vietnamese troops roved the battle area in the northern province of Quang Ngai, picking up the wounded and collecting bodies.

Details of the fighting which raged for three days between Ha Gia and Quang Ngai city about 15 miles to the east were still scanty but it was clear that government forces had suffered their worst defeat since last December, when more than 300 South Vietnamese troops were killed near Binh Gai.

Government officials said more than 250 South Vietnamese were killed in the week-end fighting.

The Viet Cong mutilated the bodies of many of the dead and shot wounded prisoners. Some of the bodies had their stomachs cut open.

So far the bodies of only about 60 Viet Cong have been found.

Today, U.S. jets harried the retreating Viet Cong units as South Vietnamese marines, tanks and infantry pursued them into mountainous country north-west of Quang Ngai city.

In that city early this morning a Viet Cong suicide squad planted bombs in the houses of a South Vietnamese general and a justice of the peace, and at the police station and a barracks.

Three of the four bombs exploded but no casualties were reported. One member of the guerrilla squad was captured and is being questioned.

But he made it abundantly clear that he intends to hold unwaveringly to his policies.

Youth Urged To Hold Debate But Johnson Says He's Right

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson told what he called the concerned, committed younger generation today that he believes in debate on U.S. policies in time of danger, but said he must proceed on the course he believes is right, regardless of criticism.

The president hit this central theme in a commencement address to the graduating class at the National Cathedral School for Girls. His 16-year-old daughter, Luci, was one of the graduates at the private school.

Johnson in his prepared address urged young Americans to use their talents to help in the struggle of the world's poor to create a better life. He said this

Jerusalem Tensions Mount After 2 Killed By Jordanians

JERUSALEM (Reuters) — Tension ran high in this divided city today after a shooting incident Monday in which two persons were killed and four wounded by shots fired from the Jordanian sector.

It was the first serious incident in Jerusalem since February and followed Israeli "reprisal" raids across the Jordan River Thursday. Similar incidents have occurred in recent weeks on Israel's border with Syria.

In Cairo, President Nasser told a meeting of Palestine Arabs Monday night the time had not yet come to fight Israel.

Israeli police charged that Monday's firing came from Jordanian positions on the old city wall.

The shots killed a 14-year-old Jewish girl and a 30-year-old Christian Arab carpenter. The wounded included two French

More Than 200 May Be Dead After Blast Rips Colliery

TOKYO (Reuters) — The known death toll rose to 91 in a coal mine explosion in southern Japan today and officials feared it may go over 200.

Some 145 men were still trapped 1,300 feet under ground. Little hope was held out for finding any of them alive.

Rescue workers said the chambers they were trapped in were filled with gas and possibly were collapsed.

Rescue headquarters said 91 bodies were brought up, 29 men were brought out with injuries and 261 men escaped by elevator up the vertical shaft leading from the explosion area.

The explosion roared through the pit of the Yamano colliery in the town of Fukuoka, Japan's main coal mine explosion in southern Japan today and officials feared it may go over 200.

It occurred near the bottom of the deep vertical shaft of the mine.

It was thought that as many as 120 of the trapped men could be in almost air-tight chambers below the blasted area.

More than 1,000 persons, mostly relatives of the trapped men, stood near the pithead tonight. They waited for the shaft lift to bring more survivors or victims to the surface.

Rescue workers reached pit officials by telephone from one of the gas-polluted chambers, saying they had located 32 bodies in one chamber.

Called the Principles of Union, the 4,000-word document recommends establishment of a general commission of 20 Anglicans and 20 United Churchmen to prepare concrete and detailed plans for organizational union into one church of more than 6,000,000 persons.

"When unity in the essentials of the faith has been achieved between two churches, there should be nothing to prevent them from agreeing on a common order and therefore coming together in one organizational structure," the document said.

But since the elaboration of a comprehensive plan of union will require a long period of time, we have here simply recorded our agreement on the principles upon which such a plan must be built."

Two official 10-man committees of the churches gave unanimous approval to the principles March 30 after several closed-door meetings in an Anglican retreat house at Ancaster, Ont., a village just outside Hamilton.

Talks were initiated by the Anglican Church in 1943.

The United Church executive will study it, and possible amendments required by the Anglican synod, in October before submitting it to general council at Waterloo, Ont., in the fall of 1966.

The Israeli complaint said four Israelis also were injured in the blowing up of two houses at the Haraharon settlement near the Jordanian border on the night of May 24.

Canada, France, Belgium Start U.S. Plan For NATO

Pierre Messmer, French Armed Forces Minister, told the NATO defence ministers conference today in Paris that the French government would study the United States proposal for a "secret committee" of four or five defence ministers to consider ways of exchanging and participating in nuclear policy, a NATO spokesman said. Canada and Belgium also welcomed the American proposal, outlined Monday by Defence Secretary McNamara. Paul Hellyer, Canada's defence minister, told the meeting that although he wanted more details he welcomed the fact that McNamara had put forward the idea of forming a select committee to bring better order to NATO's nuclear arrangements and broaden the sharing of these responsibilities, a Canadian spokesman said.

Have No Fear Says African

DURHAM (Reuters) — President Charles Swart of South Africa today urged his countrymen not to be afraid of the future and the possibility of the whole world being against them.

He said South Africa would never have been established if the first Dutch and British settlers had feared danger and hardships. "I think we can learn from that that fear would never have brought us where we are today," he declared.

The president was addressing a crowd of about 5,000 people attending celebrations marking the fourth anniversary of South Africa's becoming a republic, and leaving the Commonwealth.

TWO CAMPBELL RIVER MEN DIE AS PLANE CRASHES INTO WATER

CAMPBELL RIVER (CP) — Two men were killed late Monday when a single-engine, float equipped plane crashed in attempting a landing on the waters of Discovery Passage off this Vancouver Island resort community.

Police identified the victims as John McNeill, 33, and Norman Silver, 35, both of Campbell River.

RCMP reported that the Husky aircraft apparently experienced engine trouble as it attempted to come down, slammed into the water and sank.

Fishing boats in the area found one body floating in the water and recovered the second one later.

The plane was owned by Island Airlines of Victoria.

MPs Resume Speaker Debate After Tribute To Nowlan

OTTAWA (CP) — After paying a tribute to George Nowlan, the Commons resumes debate today on proposals to elect a permanent Speaker and adopt new rules of procedure.

Mr. Nowlan, former Conservative finance and revenue minister and a widely respected parliamentarian, died of a heart seizure Monday morning in the Ottawa Civic Hospital. He was 66.

Funeral will be in his home town of Wolfville, N.S., but arrangements have not been completed.

Monday's sitting was adjourned out of respect for Mr. Nowlan after many leaders and former cabinet colleagues paid tribute to his public service, achievements and qualities.

Opposition Leader Diefenbaker or a Conservative front-bencher is expected to reply today to a proposal by the government to name former Conservative Speaker Roland Michener as a permanent Speaker free of party affiliations. Mr.

Michener now is high commissioner to India.

Other candidates mentioned earlier in the debate were the present Speaker, Alan Macnaughton, and his deputy, Lucien Lamoureux (L-Stormont).

Despite the discussion about potential permanent Speakers, the House has not agreed in principle to establish the position, nor has it spelled out the details of tenure, appointment and pay.

The two main rule changes, as amended last week, would provide for:

—A 60-day limit each session on appropriations debates, except for extra estimates introduced after the 40 days have expired.

—A "guillotine" rule that could be invoked by a cabinet minister to limit debate on a specific bill. The debate would be set at six days unless the parties agreed on a different time allotment or the Speaker allotted extra time for amendments.

On the greatest break-through of all time. We are having a long-term review of fuel policy, and this will be fitting very closely into it."

LONDON (AP) — Britain has scored what a government official described as the greatest break-through of all time in the design of nuclear power plants.

The new design of an Advanced Gas-cooled Reactor is to be adopted for the first of Britain's "second generation" nuclear power stations at Dungeness.

The central electricity generating board plumped for the AGR system after studying tenders for British versions of American water-moderated reactors which even 12 months ago appeared to have economic advantages over the AGR.

But in the last year, the British Atomic Energy Authority has refined the AGR system into a simplified and compact design which doubles the heat-to-volume ratio of the reactor core. This allows a considerable reduction of overall size which results in a substantial saving in capital costs.

News of the break-through was given by Fred Lee, minister of power who said the AGR had clear economic and technical advantages over the alternative systems.

Lee told Parliament: "We are on the verge of a major breakthrough in the design of nuclear power plants."

Later Rodert, who is listed in the program as from Deventer in The Netherlands but lives in Oakville, Ont., talked with a reporter.

"I'm sorry this had to happen this way, but I had no choice. The instrument was abominable, the worst I have ever played, and it was impossible for me to continue."

"I don't feel very good about it, but it had to be done. There have been other complaints."

"I should not be mistaken for temperamental or anything like that."

"Actually I don't have any illusions that I am a great pianist, nor did I come here only for the purpose of winning any prize. I like to create music and share it with others. This is my job."

The audience and the 12 jury members representing 12 nations were stunned.

Boaters Check Safety Features

The Kelowna Power Squadron said six members will be on duty for its fifth annual boat safety check for all boat owners in the Kelowna area, at the Kelowna Yacht Club, 4110 Lakeshore Ave., Wednesday and Saturday, June 2 and 3 from 2 to 4:30 p.m.

At the same times the Westbank Yacht Club will hold checks for Westbank and district boat owners at their basin. Assisting the Kelowna Power Squadron will be Constable R. J. Greenert of the Kelowna RCMP.

"I urge all boat owners to bring their boats in for this check up," he said. "It is for their own protection. If they have any questions, we will be willing to answer them at the same time."

Archibald August, commander of the Kelowna Power Squadron, said:

A GROUP OF 16 PROFESSIONALS and federal government employees, members of the Canadian Association of Geographers, held their annual banquet at the Capri Motor Inn Monday. Several Kelowna men attended as guests.

Grenier is with the department of geography at Laval University. The group arrived in Kelowna from Kamloops at 4 p.m. Monday. Tuesday they toured Kelowna from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. and then continued on to Vancouver. Lead by J. L. Robinson, head of the geography department at UBC, the group travelled to the Kelowna area to look down on the Kelowna orchards, the land formations, beaches and streams. "We want to see the Glenier features of the outwash plain," Mr. Robinson said.

Sixth Fire Located, Extinguished In Kelowna Forest District

The Kelowna forest district experienced its sixth fire of the season Saturday. Bert Hewlett, fire ranger said today:

"A tree was struck by lightning on the Diamond M ranch, south east of Okanagan Mission, near Sawmill Creek," Mr. Hewlett said.

"Ranch hands and two forestry men extinguished the fire without damage. Hand tools only were used."

Other fires in the Kelowna area this season include one on April 25, slight damage north of the ferry wharf on the west side. April 26, near Stephens road, 35 acres, and six acres the same day, and six acres south east of Okanagan Mission, near Sawmill Creek.

The B.C. forest service issued its first warning of the season to people travelling in the woods.

"With the onset of warmer weather the woods are drying, campers and cowboys are travelling more, and the fire hazard is increasing slightly," the release said.

In the Kelowna area the hazard went from low to moderate and back to low in the past week.

There are 61 fires burning in B.C. Kamloops forest district, 36, Prince George, 14, Prince Rupert, five, Nelson, four and Vancouver two. All are considered under control.

The province has had 341 fires to date. The Kamloops district, of which Kelowna is a part, leads with 163 fires to date this season. Estimated cost to the province is $20,200 compared to 277 fires at a cost of $13,000 at the same date last year.

$300 Given Ballet School

Kelowna Musical Productions Monday night made available for the first time a $300 scholarship for students of the Canadian School of Ballet in Kelowna.

A profit of $4,800 was made from the society's last spring production of My Fair Lady. Dr. John Bennett, KMP president, said the 117 people attending the KMP annual meeting.

Besides the scholarship, the money will be spent on improvements to the Community Theatre and lighting equipment rental.

Dr. Bennett was re-elected president of KMP for his second term.

SUCCESS "My Fair Lady was an outstanding success," Dr. Bennett said. "Not all the money has been paid, but we have approximately $4,800 profit."

The society started this year with a balance of $400 and a $1,500 bond for collateral.

Dr. Bennett presented the ballet scholarship to Gretchen Lloyd of the Canadian School of Ballet, to distribute to some of the students who will go on to make their way in the ballet world.

Cathy Edwards, Jo Ann Jackson and Laura Gray will be the three girls receiving the money. Miss Lloyd said it will help pay their way to the Ballet School of Fine Arts this summer.

About $1,000 will go to the theatre for a catwalk to service the floodlights and for curtains.

Dr. Bennett said.

Three "thoughts, not directives" were suggested by Dr. Bennett in his president's report. KMP should consider next year's show for six nights instead of five. Perhaps one production is not enough for KMP during the year, and the group should attempt a revue, a Gilbert and Sullivan musical or some other smaller production, and the society might consider adding membership to KMP with seat priority attached.

OFFICERS Jack Cooper was re-elected president of the society. Mrs. Dorothy Richardson was elected secretary. Doug Glover was elected treasurer. Directors elected were: Dick Gunooff, Mrs. Christine DeHart and Ted Ash. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cleaver are in charge of publicity.

REPORTS Commission reports were received during today's meetings. The secretary-treasurer's revenue and expenditure report to May 15 was accepted by the delegates prior to a complete audit being made later.

The association's news letter will become a bimonthly instead of monthly. A suggestion to drop the letter was not taken up by the delegates.

Stadium and auditorium maintenance and operation was discussed at a meeting of arena managers earlier today. Bus Evans, Vancouver, was chairman of the meeting.

Today's meetings will continue with elections, the decision on a conference site for 1966 and the submission of executive and zone reports.

Geographers Must Work In Today's World - Prexy

Geographers cannot disassociate themselves from the problems of plenty and want in the world today, Fernand Grenier, president of the Canadian Association of Geographers, said today.

Mr. Grenier is president of the Canadian association of geographers and head of the department of geography at Laval University in Quebec city.

He spoke in both French and English using what he termed a "bicultural" formula. The main discourse was in French. He was the main speaker at the annual banquet of the association.

AROUND B.C. IN BRIEF

Vernon Ratepayers Approve Plan For Irrigation Line

VERNON (CP)—Vernon ratepayers have voted 332 to 65 to approve a Vernon irrigation project. The project, which would cost $2.5 million, would provide water for 1,200 acres of land in the Vernon area. The project was approved by a 10-1 vote of the Vernon City Council.

LEAVE JOB

VANCOUVER (CP)—Some 25 carpenters walked off the job at an apartment construction project here Monday after a union shop steward was fired. Spokesman for the Carpenters' Union and Hartford Construction Company Ltd., declined to give details of the incident other than to say the men will find work elsewhere.

HOUSE BURNS

RICHMOND (CP)—Fire officials Monday blamed a fire in a playhouse built under a barn porch for a blaze which destroyed the home of Charlie Gregory and his two teen-aged sons. The playhouse fire, which had been extinguished Sunday night, apparently had lit the barn under the adjoining stucco wall, a fireman said.

VEHICLES CHECKED

TRAIL (CP)—A mobile motor vehicle testing station here last week rejected 343 of 549 vehicles tested for mechanical defects. Danny Armit, mobile testing station manager, termed the response to the voluntary checking station good. He said Trail's 82.5 per cent rejection figure was lower than in most other interior centres.

NEW TUG

VANCOUVER (CP)—The 96-foot steel tug Ocean Clipper was launched at the nearby Star Shipyard (Merrett's Ltd.) Monday night to begin service for Great West Towing and Salvage Ltd. She will be used to tow self-unloading log barges operating on the north end of Vancouver Island and Smith and Rivers Inlets. Her twin diesels develop 1,220 horsepower at 100 revolutions a minute.

PRETTY FUNCTIONAL

VANCOUVER (CP)—Landscape artists, engineers, town-planning officials, regional planners, nurserymen and equipment suppliers from Western Canada, Oregon and California will participate in the second Western Canadian Roadside Development Conference to be held at the University of B.C. June 28-30. Delegates will be concerned with provision of more attractive, more efficient highways for the motorist.

Big U.S. Dilemma Forecast On Communist Prevention

WASHINGTON (AP)—The OAS itself when later it sent troops from several other Latin American countries to keep the United States and the Latin American countries from keeping peace in the Dominican Republic.

CHARTER A SHAMBLE

Therefore, within a few weeks time the 1948 charter was a shambles. Meanwhile, complicating the whole business further, both sides in the Dominican fighting demanded that the OAS peacekeeping force be withdrawn.

They had years to prepare, but didn't, for the dilemma which suddenly hit them in the Dominican revolt and will hit them again somewhere else. How to prevent communism already in Cuba, from sending control in another country.

They had time to prepare for it since Fidel Castro took over Cuba six years ago, but they preferred to rock along dreamily upon an agreement made 17 years before communism was a problem or a danger in the Western Hemisphere.

This was when the United States and the Latin American countries in 1948 created the Organization of American States and all agreed on a charter which said:

1. "No state or group of states has the right to intervene, directly or indirectly, for any reason whatever, in the internal or external affairs of another state."

2. "The territory of a state is inviolable. It may not be the object even temporarily, of military occupation or of other measures or force taken by another state directly or indirectly, on any grounds whatever."

Then in 1961, two years after communism had captured Cuba, the OAS agreed to a resolution that "the principles of communism are incompatible with the principle of the inter-American system."

But this resolution didn't say the OAS should do anything if the Communists tried to take over anyway, and the 1948 charter, agreeing to no intervention for any reason, still stood.

In short, the OAS and the United States left themselves handcuffed, so far as any agreement went, on preventing a Communist takeover. Then the Dominican revolt began.

President Johnson sent in troops to prevent a Communist takeover, he said, explaining the Communists were already in control of the revolution. Now there are serious doubts that his information was correct.

But the point is, he went contrary to the OAS charter in sending in troops. But so did

ONE OF THE FEW OLD BUILDINGS STILL IN USE

Already moves are afoot to preserve the few remaining log-built cabins and barns which at one time were in abundance throughout B.C. Most have been pulled down to make way for more modern accommodation. But the housing of the pioneers has still an historical attraction. And that is why people connected with historical societies are interested in the preservation of such edifices. Here in this photo by Courier cameraman, John English, is a well preserved barn which is still in use. It can be seen on the McCulloch road, about five miles from East Kelowna.

Westbank Wins Honors At Westsyde Sports Day

PEACHLAND — The Westsyde sports day, held at the Peachland elementary school grounds was a complete success. The sports day is an annual event with Lakeview Heights, Westbank and Peachland elementary schools taking part. Grades I to III are non-competitive, everyone takes part and it is more of a play day for them. Grades IV to VII compete for the highest marks and this year Westbank came first with a score of 75, with Peachland close on their heels with a score of 70, Lakeview Heights lagged behind, but they no doubt will bring their score up next year. The teachers express their thanks to all the parents who took part on the field and in the concession booth. Mrs. C. H. Inglis reports $71 was made on the booth and this money, the teachers will use for extra sports equipment, etc. There is the money for ribbons to be taken out of this.

Wide Education 'Best In Schools'

NANAIMO, B.C. (CP)—A broad, liberal education may be the best equipment for schools to give students in today's world, says Mrs. Frank M. Ross, chancellor of the University of British Columbia. Mrs. Ross was addressing the 190 delegates attending the five day 72nd annual meeting of the National Council of Women here Monday.

Discussing the problems of education today Mrs. Ross said knowledge and its application are changing so fast that some educationists are coming to think "a broad and liberal education, based upon the understanding of general principles and general concepts, is the only kind of learning which will permit man to accommodate himself to the new and novel frontiers of tomorrow."

She said there are 179,000 students registered in Canadian universities, twice as many as there were in 1957, and that there will be about 310,000 in 1970.

Technology requires more training of more people than was necessary a few years ago. There are few physical, national or geographical barriers left, and traditional moral and spiritual values are nearly destroyed.

Mrs. Ross said educationists must decide how and what to teach to help each individual to equip himself to live in a difficult world, to help combat the urge to conformity, and to teach him to think and question.

Clearance Urged For B.C. Dams

PRINCE GEORGE (CP)—The British Columbia Chamber of Commerce Monday unanimously called for complete pre-flooding clearance of all Columbia River development dam reservoirs.

The B.C. Chamber's action came following presentation of a motion by the Nelson Chamber of Commerce calling for complete and proper pre-flooding clearance of the Duncan, High Arrow and Mica Creek dam reservoirs.

Both the B.C. government and B.C. Hydro and Power Authority have announced that the Duncan dam reservoir will be cleared only to a point one mile north of Howser, B.C.

ART GOES ON TOUR

WINNIPEG (CP)—Founded in 1959, the extension service of the Winnipeg Art Gallery now is asked to supply more than 600 exhibitions annually throughout Western Canada.

The chamber's policy statement on education urged a national standard of curricula. William J. Burnett of Vancouver, education committee chairman, termed provincial control of education "a sham because it gives us no national target."

Delegates to the chamber's 14th annual meeting here Monday approved the recommendation in principle by referring proposals back to the executive committee with orders to merge them where compatible.

The referral came after delegates were asked to consider both the chamber's executive committee recommendation and a new recommendation prepared by the Vancouver Board of Trade.

Both statements said the forest industry is a "high risk industry" where "investment essential for expansion, requires a profit."

The chamber's energy resources policy statement sought a definite national gas policy for all Canada, recognizing the importance of the northern fields.

A fisheries policy statement recommended that fishery resources be protected from adverse effects of pollution, spraying of forests, logging and hydro power developments.

John A. Wallace, Victoria, general manager of Varrona Ltd., was elected president succeeding Reg. G. Miller, Vancouver, who will continue on the executive.

Other officers elected were E. L. Harrison, Vancouver, vice president of B.C. Packers Ltd., and J. Bruce Smith, Kelowna, president and general manager of Okanagan Investments Ltd.

The B.C. Chamber of Commerce is a federation of 127 local chambers and boards of trade, with more than 12,000 members.

Adults Rattle Off Indictments But PTA Chiefs Blame Them

WASHINGTON (AP) — When other things—smoking, discourtesy, talk about teenagers' sex, bad language, acts of rebellion—can be traced to a string of indictments, all the things they listed may be no end.

Kids these days, they say, wantonly destroy things, have early sex experiences, drink, steal, even use dope. It all adds up to an increase in teenage immorality, at least in the eyes of adults.

In an effort to find causes, Parents' Teachers' Associations in cities and towns throughout the United States were questioned. The responses were near-unanimous in declaring adults are at fault.

Typical comments, from a story in a recent issue of the PTA Magazine:

"Our society is appallingly sex-saturated. There is an increase in adult immorality."

"Too many parents are neglecting their children, and trying to buy their love with material things. Our kids are a lot better than we have any right to expect them to be—we take an honest look at ourselves and our world."

The article emphasized: "If the younger generation is going to the dogs, the PTA presidents said, it's the fault of the adults, if it isn't going to the dogs, it's in spite of the adults."

VANDALISM WORST

Sixty per cent of the local PTA presidents responding to the survey said teenage immorality is increasing in their communities. They mentioned in this order of frequency: vandalism, teenage pregnancies, which preaches strict standards drinking, petting, and thievery, of sexual morality, but does not they also mentioned enough,praise what it preaches."

CONSIDERED SEX

Not long ago the scholarly Journal of the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors devoted an entire issue to the sex standards of college students.

It noted an increase in premarital intercourse and cited as a major reason: "A society deluged with sex pictures, which preaches strict standards drinking, petting, and thievery, of sexual morality, but does not they also mentioned enough,praise what it preaches."

Royals Nip Carlings 2-1 In Men's Softball Thriller

Gib Loseth and Nick Bulach combined to lead Royal Anne Royals to a narrow 2-1 decision over Kelowna Carlings and a share of first place in senior men's softball Monday night.

Playing-coach Bulach unloaded a home in the bottom of the first scoring Loseth, who walked ahead of him. These were all the runs Royals needed as they made their stand up the rest of the way.

Loseth stranded on the mound, holding the scrappy Carlings to two hits, one a double by Pat Loring in the fourth inning that drove in Jim Sussel with Carlings' only run.

The right-hander, anchor of Royals' pitching corps, also had a perfect two-for-two at the plate. One of his two hits was a two-bagger in the fifth frame.

Dennis Casey, who went the distance for the losers, limited the winners to six safeties, but nothing of a threatening nature after the first inning. It was one of the fastest games of the season taking an hour and 15 minutes to complete.

Royals' victory created a three-way play atop league standings once more.

Wednesday night Willow Inn. Carlings and Royals should break the tie when they clash at a King's Stadium at 6:30. The three-way play atop league other co-leaders, Rutland Royals, are also.

Third Straight PCL Defeat Tumbles Tacoma From Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tacoma, the Pacific Coast League's western division leader, moved over to challenge Oklahoma City Monday night and got knocked out of first place. Oklahoma did it with a 6-0 shutout, Tacoma's third straight defeat.

The loss, coupled with Portland's 13 victory over Salt Lake City, dropped the Giants into second place in the western division. The game featured the Oregon team.

In other games, Seattle beat San Diego 7-4. Indianapolis blanked Arkansas 3-0 and Spokane downed Denver 3-1. Houston and Vancouver were tied.

Oklahoma City rookie pitcher Otto Zachary allowed Tacoma only two hits to notch his fifth win in seven starts. The Bears scored three runs in the sixth.

on a homer by Mike White and a two-run double by Jerry Clouse then added three more in the eighth—all unearned.

Oklahoma leads the eastern division by 1½ games over second-place Indianapolis. Portland smothered Salt Lake City's five with five singles and a grand-slam home run by George Banks for six runs in the bottom of the fifth inning.

The Bears got 10 hits, but were unable to put them together for more than three runs.

A bases-loaded homer by Dick Thompson also sparked Seattle to its win over the Padres. The Angels now are third, a game and a half behind Portland.

Arkansas got two men on base in five of the first eight innings of their game with Indianapolis, but right-hander Dave Delaney pitched out of the jams to register the shutout, his fifth win in nine tries.

Spokane's Joe Mueller (5-4) and reliever Bill Boehlert held Denver to five hits while their teammates put together a nine-hit attack to edge the Bears.

Despite being disparagingly referred to as a "ladies game" by some, softball is blossoming in this district. The senior B men's version here is a fast exciting game and the calibre is becoming more and more polished. Witness the low close scores that mark most of their contests.

The day, or should it be night, of lights illuminating King's Stadium for the stars, is near at hand. Some of the equipment is already lined up. Poles and six of the eight transmitters required for eight banks of lights are now available.

The softball association was toying with the idea of holding a giant bingo to raise money needed to put towards purchase of the new lights but abandoned that plan in favor of trying to raise some cash by other means.

At a meeting Monday night, the association agreed each Kelowna team in the four-team loop would contribute $100 and the league would add the other $200 to make up the necessary $500 initial payment. It is expected the city of Kelowna will match half the costs of purchasing the equipment.

The association is now counting on a raffle and perhaps a tournament as means of raising funds to assist in the light program. There is every indication, barring any unforeseen obstacle, lights should be installed at the park sometime in July.

The umpires decided to offer something tangible in the way of a reward for good sportsmanship. The men in blue will offer a trophy for the first time this year to the softball player best combining sportsmanship with ability. Judging will be done solely by members of the umpires' association. Each will make three selections on a point system. The award covers league play only, not playoffs.

It was Christmas all over again Saturday night at Elks Stadium and Labatts played Santa Claus to the North Kamloops Stars. Yes sir, the old Labs took the alleged ball game, wrapped it up in a neat little package and served it up on a platter for the infant Stars, newest addition to the Okanagan Mainline Baseball League.

True, the young Stars played good ball. Still they didn't quite deserve that 10-7 handout... because they were set down on six fairly well scattered hits by another youngster, Allan Vetter, working his first game as a senior was impressive and he fanned 15 North Kamloops hitters.

The 16-year-old right-hander would be well within his right if he sued his Kelowna teammates for non-support. He shouldn't have much difficulty working up a strong case. His mates contributed 13 errors while Allan chipped in with two erratic throws. (The South Kamloops pitcher, Labatts, arctic because four into his unearned runs. Don't know if that's an all-time OMBL record but it sure is a new high for the Kelowna club.)

Surprisingly enough, the contest was the fastest of three played here this season. One 10-7 got underway 15 minutes after 8:30 p.m. Starting time, it was all over in two and a half hours. The speed was largely attributable to the work of both hurlers. Vetter's opponent 19-year-old Robert Corbin turned in an admirable job for the inexperienced Stars. He gave up seven hits and whiffed 10 Labatts. He was hit a little harder than Vetter.

And speaking of Labatts, a brother-in-law of Jack Burton, one of the club's veterans, made sports history Monday. Billy Foster, of Victoria, became the first Canadian racer to qualify for the Memorial Day 500 mile auto race at Indianapolis. He was showing well in eighth position when his car developed a broken water line at the 90th lap forcing him from the classic. Jack's and Billy's wives are sisters.

Missing Buoy Cancels Sail Races

The first race scheduled by the sailing division of the Kelowna Yacht Club for Sunday, May 26, got off to a flying start — in winds gusting up to 30 mph but had to be cancelled when the boats reaching the windward buoy found it had disappeared. There were a few thrills and spills while it lasted and many wet sailors by the time the boats were safely tied at their moorings in the yacht club basin.

The next sailing event, in which the sailboats will take part, will be the Commodore's Sail Fest on Saturday, June 8, at 7 p.m.

Balfour's Funeral On Wednesday

REGINA (CP) — Bobby Hull and Bill Hay of Chicago Black Hawks will be pallbearers Wednesday at the funeral of Murray Balfour, a former linemate who died Sunday while recuperating from an operation to correct a respiratory disease.

Balfour played on a line with Hull and Hay during much of his five-year National Hockey League career with Chicago. He was 28.

The funeral will be at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, 200 Turner, a former Montreal and Chicago player, and Doug Kiloh, a form Saskatchewan Roughriders player in the Western Football Conference, will also be pallbearers.

Balfour underwent surgery at Harrisburg, Pa., April 5. He was staying at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Balfour, when he returned to hospital Saturday.

Bewley Plans Return To ALs

MONTREAL (CP) — Bill Bewley, retired since 1961, is trying a comeback to the Eastern Football Conference as a kicking specialist, Montreal Alouettes announced today.

The announcement said Bewley, 32, "will be used specifically for kicking purposes on placements, conversions and kick-offs."

Since he left the Alouettes in 1961, Bewley has been coach of McGill Redmen in the Senior Intercollegiate Football Conference. He left that job this year when McGill decided to hire a full-time coach. Bewley had mixed his coaching duties with a business career.

IN PAIRS ONLY

Chuck McKinley will play only in the doubles in this week's opening Davis Cup zone tennis matches against Canada, United States Captain George MacCall announced Monday. The matches start Friday at Bakersfield, Calif.

LABATTS HOPE TO ERASE MEMORY TONIGHT AGAINST PENTICTON

Kelowna Labatts take to Elks Stadium tonight with the memory of Saturday night's disaster fresh in their minds. But they are determined not to duplicate their disastrous performance against second place Penticton Molsons. The first pitch is set for 8 p.m.

Wayne Leonard, Labs' playing manager, hopes his charges have got that real bad game out of their systems. Labatts had the pitching and the hitting to win the last encounter with North Kamloops Stars, but they just had no defence surrendering 10 unearned runs, enough for a 10-1 decision.

Fans are likely to get a look at some fine hurling tonight. The Peach City squad can throw either southpaw Larry Webster or right-hander Jim Terbasket, or their fireballing rookie Barry MacGillivray, at Labatts. MacGillivray stopped Labs on two hits last outing in Penticton.

Leonard is expected to counter with big right-hander Les Schaefer in an attempt to get back on the winning track tonight. Kelowna now has an even 5-5 record.

Rear-Engine Cars Sweep Top 3 Spots At Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS (CP-AP) — The bagpipes played long and loudly for Scotsman Jimmy Clark's record-smashing victory in the 6th Indianapolis 500-mile race Monday in which tiny rear-engine cars won the first nine places in the 100-mile race.

Clark led for 190 of the 200 laps over the 2½-mile course in the U.S. Memorial Day classic before a crowd of more than 200,000. He averaged 156.666 miles an hour, a record, and finished more than a lap ahead of Parnelli Jones of Torrance, Calif., in a Lotus-Ford.

The Scotsman picked up an extra $25,000 in lap prizes based on $150 for each winning lap and unofficially had won $165,000 in prize money with Jones earning $60,000.

Clark's victory was the first for an overseas entry since Italy's Dario Resta turned the track in 1916.

This year's 500 was a mechanical disappointment for many drivers, including Billy Foster, the first Canadian to qualify for the race.

Only 11 of the 31 starters were around at the end. Foster, 27-year-old Victoria, B.C., car dealer, was one of the 10 rookies who qualified but he was forced to drop out at the 90th lap when his $40,000 rear-engine Offenhauser special broke a water line.

Foster was shadowed by ill luck from the start of the race. His car wouldn't start but he finally got off to the roar of the crowd and caught the field before the parade lap was completed.

The Canadian was in eighth place at the 50-mile mark but lost ground after that and by the 100-mile mark was not among the top 10.

IN SECOND ROW He started from the second row, a spot earned when he was sixth among 19 in qualifying runs when he averaged 158.416 m.p.h.

These 11 cars were the only ones still running at the finish.

Nichols Beats Venturi By Stroke

IGONIER, Pa. (AP) — Bobby Nichols fired a two-over-par 73 Monday and beat Ken Venturi by one stroke in the National Golf Day target score match.

They were even at the end of 17 holes at the par 36-35 71 Laurel Valley Golf Club course, and Venturi took a bogey 5 out after hooking his tee shot into high rough.

With Nichols finishing two over, it means duellers throughout the United States will have to shoot at least one over par to win National Golf Day awards.

The round-netted Nichols 310,000; Venturi $5,000. Before teeing off in the round of champions, Venturi said the warmer the weather the better he feels. The temperature hovered around 70.

Perry Silences Cards' Bats, Giants Move Closer to Top

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Gaylord Perry, best known for the patch he made against a dugout wall, has found he's more effective aiming at the catcher.

The 26-year-old San Francisco right-hander allowed two hits in the first inning Monday but held St. Louis Cardinals batless over the final 8 2/3 innings as the Giants stretched their winning streak to five games with a 4-1 triumph.

It was the best performance of the season for Perry, who last year precipitated the many cases of the many-splintered bat.

In a game at Houston, he was tagged for a game-winning hit by Nellie Fox and immediately stormed off the mound, paced up Fox' bat and threw it against the concrete dugout.

The concrete dugout didn't give the bat did. And so did Perry — eventually. He was hit by the Houston club for the cost of the bat, $2.98, and paid up by order of National League president Warren Giles.

In his last three starts, he has allowed only five runs for a 1.80 earned-run average while bringing his record to 5-3.

The Giants' victory moved them within three games of the National League lead as Los Angeles Dodgers split a doubleheader with Cincinnati, winning the opener 4-3 before Joey Jay ended the Reds' six-game losing streak with a three-hit, 6-1 triumph.

Pittsburgh Pirates, meanwhile, ran their winning streak to 11 games by defeating Philadelphia Phillies 5-2. Houston Astros topped Milwaukee Braves 7-2 and New York Mets downed Chicago Cubs 5-2 before their second game was halted by darkness after nine innings with the score tied 3-3. It will have to be replayed.

Perry got the only runs he needed against the Cards in the sixth inning when Willie McCovey hit his 11th homer, a two-run shot off Curt Smolons.

Marty Willis was the key to the Dodgers' first-game triumph. The little shortstop stole second and third in the fifth inning and scored the tying run on Ron Fairly's single. Then, in the ninth, he stroked his fourth single, driving in the winning run.

Elsewhere in the American League, Chicago White Sox topped Cleveland Indians 4-3 in 10 innings before losing 4-3 and Detroit defeated New York Yankees 5-1 after dropping a 3-1 decision.

Sam Bowers' leadoff home run off Johnny Klymystyn in the ninth brought Miller and Baltimore the second-game victory. Jim Kaat halted the Orioles on three hits in the opener.

INJURY-PLAGUED Dennis Bennett pitched 5 1/3 innings before giving way to Radatz in the sixth inning of the nightcap. Felix Mantilla knocked in two Boston runs with a sacrifice fly and a double.

Bob Lee saved Dean Chance's fourth victory in eight decisions in the first game, coming on in the eighth inning.

Senator Hurler "Real" Unsung Hero Koplitz Continues Streak 5 Years

By MURRAY CHASS Associated Press Sports Writer

The limelight has fallen lately on Stu Miller and Dick Radatz, a couple of short-term relief pitchers who need a week to put together a nine-inning shutout. But the truly unsung hero among American League pitchers is Howie Koplitz.

He has a seven-game winning streak over the last five years. Koplitz posted his second triumph of 1963 as Washington Senators defeated Kansas City Athletics in the first game of a 5-2, 3-1 doubleheader sweep Monday.

The 27-year-old right-hander first reached the majors with Detroit Tigers in 1961, winning two games in four appearances. The next season, he pitched in 10 games with the Tigers, winning three.

A two-year exile in such minor-league outposts as Syracuse, Tacoma and Topeka followed and Koplitz didn't get another crack at big-league hitters until the Senators purchased him from Hawaii earlier this season.

BEGIN TO WONDER American League hitters, meanwhile, are beginning to wonder whether there's any chance of exiling Miller and Radatz.

Miller extended his shutout streak to 29 scoreless innings in 15 relief appearances in Baltimore Orioles' 5-4 second-game triumph over Minnesota. The Twins won the opener 6-0.

The 37-year-old relief ace hasn't given up a run since April 24, reducing his earned run average from 7.88 to 1.70.

Trailing Miller by three relief shutouts is Radatz, who didn't permit a hit in 3 2/3 innings as Boston Red Sox blanked Los Angeles 3-0. The Angels took the first game 5-3.

Radatz, who earlier this season had a 7.43 e.r.a., hasn't allowed a run in 10 2/3 innings, lowering the average to 3.21.

QUITS VICTORIA

S. J. Bibby, president of Hamilton Red Wings of the Ontario Hockey Association Junior A series, announced Monday appointment of Rudy Pilous above, as manager-coach of the club. He succeeds Danny Lewicki who quit after the 1964-65 season. Pilous, coach of Victoria Maple Leafs in the Western Hockey League last season and former coach of Chicago Black Hawks in the National League, quit the Victoria post Monday.
